

Organization & Relationship Systems Coaching

We started participating in ORSC workshops (Organization & Relationship Systems Coaching)

The competences gained through this programme have increased our coaching skills in working with teams, and allow us to work systematically and to more fully support organisations in transformation.