

Programme "Try Human to Business"

Human to Business Group has launched the programme "Try Human to Business". It is addressed to students who are looking for possibilities to serve an internship and to get to know in practice the specifics of working in a consulting company.

Benefits for the trainees from the cooperation: gaining professional experience, presentation of own competences and potential, verification of professional interests, proving oneself in professional situations, preparing for recruitment requirements in the future, more conscious navigation through the labour market.
