

Change of our visual identity

Human to Business Group completed the project of changing its visual identity

The previous logo

human to business has been replaced by a new one

The new brand identity reflects our desire to achieve synergy, interaction, and continuous dynamics, while at the same time maintaining balance between the human and business factors in organisations.